Welcome to our newsletter sharing information with you on local events, services and news in Northumberland and the North East for children and young people with SEND (special educational needs and/or disabilities) and their families.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

Mortal Fools are a multi award-winning theatre, drama and creative learning charity based in Northumberland working across the North. We specialise in co-creating compelling, dynamic, socially relevant and high-quality performance-based work with children, young people and communities. Our work engages, enables and empowers folks enabling them through our creative projects, to grow and evolve whilst existing as an early intervention providing safe spaces to be authentically brave and scaffold towards good mental health.

We run Youth Theatre groups and creative intervention projects for young people aged 7-19. We currently have groups in Ashington, Tyne Valley, online and in various school and youth work settings. Our groups are as accessible as possible, no prior experience is necessary, and all our sessions are free (donations welcome). Our groups are open to new members at various points in the year. You can express an interest in joining/finding out more on our website and you can download our new member guide which can be useful to share with young people

Our groups and creative interventions hold safe spaces for young people with intersectional needs, using drama as a means to increase their wellbeing, develop their communication skills, enhance youth leadership, trigger creative expression and to make sense of the world they are living in. Young people are given central roles in the creative process as they co-create original and socially engaged performances, films, animations, pieces of writing from scratch working with professional artists and theatre makers about the things that matter to them.

We have grown a reputation as a regional leader in co-creation practice with children and young people (CYP), supporting CYP to engage in cultural activity in deep, meaningful, and impactful ways, in accessible, place-based settings. Our programmes are co-designed with CYP, artists, partners, and wider audiences, in response to needs and interests.

Throughout our programmes, CYP work alongside professional artists in equitable relationships to co-create original performance-based art using themes and ideas which are relevant to their lives, amplifying their voices and experiences and giving them power and autonomy as cultural consumers and artists in their own right.

You can find examples of past youth theatre projects on our website: www.mortalfools.org.uk and via our social media channels across all platforms: @mortalfoolsuk

We also have a variety of downloadable FREE resources, films and creative work that folks can use in their settings with young people.

'Help for Households' Campaign

In response to increasing prices and the pressures around the cost of living, the government has launched 'Help for Households' - a campaign to raise awareness of the support available amongst those that need it most. It gives clear information about the exceptional payments, energy support and existing support schemes available, so the public know what is available and where they can find help. The homepage gov.uk/helpforhouseholds brings together over 40 support schemes that the public may be able to access depending on eligibility. Additionally, a range of online tools will help citizens quickly and efficiently check the support they might be eligible for and how to access it.

Housing options for 16+
